

The ROTHERHITHE SHED EXHIBITION

Celebrating 10 years of this innovative local project with a showcase of member's work.

The Rotherhithe Shed is a partnership project delivered by London Bubble Theatre and Time & Talents.

For 10 years, older people have brought projects to make, mend and upcycle, using the resources of Bubble's workshop, the support our skilled facilitators and their camaraderie with each other.

Southwark Park Galleries have generously offered The Salter Gallery to host an exhibition of work from

17TH AUGUST - 3RD SEPT

Can you support us?

Donations from local businesses will enable us to celebrate our members' creativity and craftsmanship in the way it deserves.

We aim to raise £2,000 in financial and in-kind support

With your help, we can:

- Record member's stories of how and why they made the pieces on display
- Create a printed catalogue of the exhibition
- Create a digital catalogue to make the exhibition accessible to more people and for its legacy
- Use augmented reality technology to share member's stories
- Host an opening and closing celebration event for our members

Donations can include:

- One off financial contributions
- In kind support of
  - food & drink
  - printing
  - construction materials
